HIGH WIND IS CAUSE OF TWO COSTLY FIRES

A DISASTROUS CONFLAGRATION OCCURS EARLY SUNDAY MORNING.

The shifting of the stovepipe by the high wind Sunday morning resulted in a conflagration that destroyed two homes. The sparks as emitted through the pipe set fire to the ceiling of the home of Bob Haviland on upper Bryan avenue. Within a short time the house was a mass of flames and soon the fire was communicated to the adjoining dwelling occupied by Charles Chapman. The fire department was on hand in record breaking time, but the water pressure was far from sufficient and by the time a stream could be secured the houses had been destroyed. The house of John Stiger adjoining would have been destroyed but for the actions of Ambrose Murphy, of the White Mountain water company, who by driving his water wagon close to the building was able, with the aid of a bucket, to save the dwelling. Just as Murphy had used the last drop of water, an additional supply was secured from the hose line, through which water commenced to run. The loss will probably reach $3,000.

WILL PUT UP FACES OF THE PIONEERS

W. S. ("Ole") Elliott, is making an effort to get a complete collection of photographs of the pioneers of White Pine county, which he intends having placed in neat individual frames, for the adornment of the walls of a section of the Northern hotel. His collection already numbers about twenty and is daily increasing. Tom Rockhill and J. C. Moon, two of the oldest of the old timers of this section, have taken an interest in Elliott's efforts and are aiding him in getting contributions to the collection.

Mr. Elliott announces that he will greatly appreciate contributions to the collection from persons who possess photographs of pioneers, which they feel they can spare. Mr. Elliott is also making a collection of the early day and present mining celebrities of the state, which will also be placed on the walls of the hotel lobby in neat frames.—White Pine News.

ONLY FOUR MEN ARE AT WORK

COLD TURN DOWN FOR THE MUCH BOOMED CAMP ON THE IDAHO LINE.

The Goldfield Tribune says H. C. Roberson, a well known mining man, has just returned to Goldfield after a thorough inspection of the new and much boomed camp of Jarbridge. He gives the district a cold turndown, and declares that it has no chance of making a producing camp. He took a number of samples from the Bourne property, which has been advertised as having $27,000,000 worth of ore in sight in the outcrop, and his average was $6.47. The highest assay he secured was about $15. From one of the other alleged bonanzas he secured an average of $3.26.

Although there are 500 or 600 people in the district, only four miners are working, and people are now getting out faster than others coming in. Representatives of the Guggenheims and David H. Moffat of Colorado, have recently been in the camp, but quickly turned it down.

The Bonanza has the most complete ruling and binding plant in the state. Give us a trial!

MISS VIRGINIA THORNTON.
With the Aylesworth Stock Company.

Tonight at the Nevada theater the Aylesworth Stock company will open for a return engagement of one week. The play will be "The Love Route," and is pronounced one of the best in the repertoire. The popular prices will prevail, the admission being placed at 25c, 35c and 50c.

The opening play made a decided hit in Goldfield. It deals with railroad construction and is very appropriate for the occasion, owing to the local railroad strike. The company will remain here one week and will then continue on to Reno where they will appear in the new Majestic theater.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY FIRED FROM JOB

ATTORNEY GENERAL REMOVES FROM OFFICE PROSECUTOR OF WHITE PINE.

ELY, Nev., April 4.—Anthony Jurich has succeeded C. R. Reeves as district attorney of White Pine county. Attorney General Stoddard this morning sent a message relieving the county's prosecutor from the burden of public care and announced that Mr. Jurich has succeeded him.

The action taken by Mr. Stoddard is authorized under an act of the legislature passed three years ago empowering the state attorney in the event that he is not pleased with the manner in which the duties of a district attorney in any county in the state are being performed, to appoint a deputy district attorney to take up the work.

Though conditions in the district attorney's office in White Pine county have not been satisfactory for some time it was not known when Mr. Stoddard would act in this case. It is believed he has been in constant touch with the situation, however, and was only waiting an opportunity to secure a suitable attorney to take up the work before taking final action.

Reeves' troubles began when he took office about three years ago and have continued practically without interruption until the present time.

FIRST REAL RAILROAD IN OWENS RIVER VALLEY

The first long, loud whistle of a real railroad train was heard in Owens Valley last Sunday. It signalled the completion of the broad gauge road from Los Angeles into the valley; it also signified the inevitable passing of Inyo's sagebrush era and the dawn of modern development.

The road from the south is completed as far as Olanche, the first station properly located within Owens' valley, and there remains now only the last lap of this project to be finished before rail shall meet rail—the joining of the standard gauge with the narrow ribbons of rust that have done service as a railroad between Keeler and Mina—at Owenyo. This last lap of the road will be completed this summer.

Regular train schedule has been established as far as Olanche. South bound passenger train leaves every morning at 6 o'clock. In the afternoon the train from Mojave arrives. Autos then carry passengers to Owenyo, Lone Pine or Independence, where ever they wish to go.
